One's personality, economic circumstances and habits can contribute to a fixed level of happiness that spans decades: "the happiest 20 year olds are, on average, the happiest 40, 50, and 60 year olds," he continues. That said, you can work your way to a somewhat sunnier demeanor ("work" being the operative word).

Why Can't I Be Happy? 8 Things That Will Make You Happier

I think Mrs. Winterson was afraid of happiness. Jesus was supposed to make you happy but he didn't, and if you were waiting for the Apocalypse that never came, you were bound to feel disappointed. She thought that happy meant bad/wrong/sinful. Or plain stupid. Unhappy seemed to have virtue attached to it.
